Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions: The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the copying of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a copy. One of these specified conditions is that the copy is not to be ‘used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.’ If a user makes a request for, or later uses a copy for, purposes in excess of ‘fair use,’ the user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copy request if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the requests would involve violation of copyright law.
